II. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal question

A. If the basis for jurisdiction is a federal question

List the specific federal statutes of the United States constitution that are at issue in this case

13th amendment. 18 U.s.c. 1595 Debt bondage, peonage, and/or involuntary servitude. Civil remedy against labor trafficking. Trafficking victims protection act.

III. Statement of claim

Anthony Mendez, manager at Swarovski palm beach in 2014, withheld 15 days pay, travel expenses incurred while opening the new store, and vacation pay. He violated my civil right to privacy during shift in March 2014, he stole information without my consent. He read my paycheck after stepping in my space and ran out to go report it to another party. I was owed money for travel expenses, which were not received because he assumed "that's not your money!" He then knowingly scheduled me for work the next two weeks to pay for it, deliberately to pay for what he thought wasn't correct. He garnished my wages and future earnings owed and then asked me to work extra shifts so his manger could leave on vacation knowing he froze my wages. If I had known he was going to freeze my paycheck I wouldn't of worked the half months schedule. Consequently, I was forced to move in with a criminal because not received payment. Because Anthony Mendez and Swarovski illegally withheld and failed to pay the money I worked for. He was using debt bondage, peonage, and/or involuntary servitude for repayment what he assumed but did not investigate. He caused me to be homeless for weeks. Damages not limited to unpaid wages, but negatively imbalance other aspects such as mental health and lack control. Debt bondage when you're tricked into working for little or no pay. The money earned goes to pay off a loan.

IV. RELIEF

Approx. two weeks paycheck, travel expenses approx. 650 miles, approx. 20 hours vacation pay, other expenses
